Walls of Hope - CANADA
Walls of Sorrow/ Walls of Hope
An International Journey of Transformation Through Art
2008
Walls of Hope-CANADA

Was created in April of 2008 in Toronto by Claudia Bernardi and Julie Jarvis working in collaboration with youth from diverse backgrounds, nationalities and languages. This community based and collaborative art project took the form of a multi-layered, multi-faceted installation that includes paintings, sculptures, theatre, dance, film, sound sculpture and video projections and documentation.
Irma, El Salvador
K’yenne, Canada
Samantha, Canada
Laurie, Canada
Jessie, First Nations - Canada
Sam,
Canada
Angel, Jessica and Diana, El Salvador
Karla and Cindy, El Salvador
Alana, Canada
Cecilia and Memo
El Salvador
Eric, Guatemala
Axel,
Mexico
Mateo,
Colombia
Lisa, Canada

Rosa
With camera
Peru
Axel, Mexico

Adib, Pakistan
Leila and Alana, Canada
Kat, Canada, with Alana and Claudia
The voice of the people.

Tell me why?

What happened?

Before?

In my distant past.

The voice of the people.

Tell me why?

What happened?

Before?

In my distant past.

Irma,
El Salvador
Lilia,
Mexico
Walls of Sorrow/ Walls of Hope
Collaborative Installation

Will be exhibited at:

• Metro Hall, July 2008
• City Hall, August, 2008
• Art Gallery of Ontario, October 2008

Toronto- Canada
Walls of Hope - CANADA

has been possible thanks to the support of:

Phoenix Community Works Foundation

Laidlaw Foundation

The Art Gallery of Ontario

Sketch

Thank you!!!